Pricing, Payment & Shipping
* Unless otherwise indicated, the following shall be in place.
Canadian Pricing	* Prices quoted do not include Canadian HST, GST or PST, where applicable
Canadian Taxes	* For delivery of equipment and/or software in New Brunswick, Caris (the Vendor) will be responsible for collecting HST. * For deliveries in other Canadian provinces, the End-user is responsible for the payment of applicable taxes. * An End-user claiming GST/PST/Duty exemption must provide to the Vendor a Tax Exemption number(s) at the time of order. Failure to provide Tax Exemption numbers results in a significant increase in the Vendor's administrative paperwork. In such cases, the Vendor reserves the right to pass on these administrative charges to the End-user.
Export Pricing	* Prices do include Canadian customs duties if applicable. * Prices do not include import duties, taxes or other such related costs imposed by the importing country. * The Vendor reserves the right to revise the quoted price of any software or equipment sourced outside Canada in the event of a significant change in the Canada/US exchange rate occurring prior to the expiry date of this quotation or to the date of receipt of an order.
Additional Pricing	* A $50 per diem rate will be charged to the Client for all training/consulting that is held at the client's site. All travel expenses (airfares, taxis, accommodations etc.) will be invoiced at cost. * Software Support may be acquired for all CARIS software products at the time of purchase. An existing Software Support Agreement that is interrupted may be subject to payment of a renewal fee. Software Support may be purchased for CARIS Software products no longer covered by Warranty.
General	* All prices are FOB Fredericton, NB, Canada. The End-user shall be responsible for all costs to ship products to its facility. Unless otherwise directed in writing by the End-user, the Vendor will arrange for shipping and insurance via the most economical means and bill the End-user at cost. (These costs will normally include shipping, insurance and handling). * Prices quoted include the integration of software with any hardware purchased at the same time from the Vendor. * Prices quoted do not include onsite software installation/integration unless stated otherwise. * All line items in quotation must be purchased together as a bundle in order to obtain any applied discounts or special conditions. Single line items purchased are NOT subject to noted discounts.
Payment	* For goods and services is net 30 days from date of shipment, based on approved credit terms. The Vendor reserves the right to request payment in advance of shipping. * The End-user is responsible for any fees or charges incurred as a result of a bank transfer. In the event that the Vendor is charged a deposit fee, the End-user will be invoiced. (The End-user, as applicable in this clause, is defined as the party ordering the software.)
Shipping	* Is from Fredericton and will be 5 - 10 days from receipt of Purchase Order and approved credit. Times may vary according to size of order and availability.
Warranty	* All CARIS products carry a one- (1) year Warranty on the original software purchased ensuring the functionality of the software as outlined in the documentation. The Warranty is valid provided the CARIS software and support products are installed according to the Vendor's guidelines. * For all other hardware and software, warranties provided by the manufacturer will be passed onto the End-user. If the hardware under warranty must be handled via the Vendor, all shipping charges and labour involved shall be charged to the End-user. * The Vendor guarantees hardware compatibility with CARIS software only when the hardware is purchased from, or specified by, the Vendor. The Vendor is not responsible for onsite hardware installation or related work activities. * The Vendor does not guarantee CARIS software performance in situations where CARIS is required to integrate or coexist with software not supplied by the Vendor.
General Terms	* Changes to these terms and conditions can be made upon mutual agreement of all parties and must be made writing. * Software operation may be limited to specific hardware platforms. Please contact the Vendor for more information. * The End-user is required to sign a software license agreement that includes a non-disclosure clause relating to proprietary information regarding the software and documentation. The software license agreement for CARIS for Windows products is a "break-the-seal" envelope shipped with the product. * All software is delivered with restricted rights as commercial "off-the-shelf" items in accordance with the Vendor's license and lease agreements.
