

August 11, 2022
סימוכין : 01239122

תניון : Provision of consulting services of electricity trading and various grid aspects - Clarification file

Clause in the tender	question	Answer from the authority
7.B	1. With regard to the affidavits about no convictions and no connection to hostile states, Can they be signed before a notary or only an attorney (lawyer). Also can these conditions be stated together in one affidavit one for all consultants?	In accordance with Article 7.B, the affidavits must be signed by a lawyer. In this regard, it will be clarified that this affidavit can also be signed by a notary. These conditions can be stated together in one affidavit for the Bidder and for the consultants on his behalf provided that all consultants sign the affidavit in addition to the signature of a lawyer or a notary
7.c	For proof of section 7.c threshold condition (the professional report), is it possible to attach a professional report that was prepared for the electricity authority (EA)?	A professional report submitted to the EA can be submitted as the professional report.