Annex A

Pre-Qualification Documents; Clarifications
Item No.	Q/A	Questions and Answers	Reference
1.	Q:	Whereas certain Pre-Qualification Forms will be signed by a foreign Entity or person and confirmed by a foreign attorney or public notary, the Tender Committee was requested to clarify that the warning to be given by such foreign attorney or public notary in its confirmation shall not refer to Israeli Law but rather to the foreign law applicable to the foreign signatory.	Section 8.4.2 (Authorization of Signatures by an Attorney) of the Invitation
2.	A:	The Tender Committee accepts the request and clarifies that in the attorney/public notary confirmation part of Pre-Qualification Forms signed by a foreign party and confirmed by a foreign attorney or public notary, the word "Law" included in each such confirmation shall be deemed and read as the word "law" (undefined term). For the removal of doubt: (i) the clarification above shall also apply to Pre-Qualification Forms signed and confirmed prior to issuance of this Addendum; and (ii) shall not apply to other provisions of the Invitation save for the attorney/public notary confirmation included in the Pre-Qualification Forms.
